OEA-R Spring Conference April 22, 2025

Join your retired member colleagues for a viewing of the many historical exhibits in the museum (the museum will be closed that day to outside visitors, so unfortunately you won't be surrounded by 900 or so public-school students and their addled teachers and chaperones; we have the place to ourselves, and it's a big place!), a tasty lunch, and a creative interactive program, facilitated by our own Carol Dixon. Celebrating Poetry Month (April), we will feature the 2022-2024 Ohio Beat Poet Laureate, Sandra Feen.

NEOEA-R @ MegaConference for Membership!

NEOEA-R leadership and members serve on NEOEA Committees which present personal, professional and educational development breakout sessions each year. We had our informational table at the event to provide members, both active and retired what we do and how we help members in all areas of work in the United Education Profession. We also offered a pre-retired workshop for active members to enroll in OEA-R and NEA-R lifetime memberships at today’s dues levels, even if leaving a school at retirement is years away.

This session keeps members informed of the retirement benefits that can be expected at retirement and to help them explore other vehicles to be financially secure during retirement. Persons who are not yet life members of OEA-R and NEA-R are also encouraged to join OEA-R/NEA-R life to lock in benefits going forward.
